

New Hoong Fatt's Joyful Bowling Tournament Reunites Employees Post-COVID-19

After a long hiatus due to the challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic, NHF has organized a thrilling bowling tournament on June 18, 2023 at Wangsa Bowl, Setia City Mall. The bowling tournament not only encouraged friendly competition but also aimed to foster relationships among employees. Participants were grouped into teams, comprising individuals from various departments.

Throughout the event, there was a lively and supportive atmosphere. Cheerful applause filled the lanes as participants achieved personal bests and scored strikes. NHF recognised and celebrated the participants' achievements, fostering a culture that recognises and appreciates the efforts of every employee. Awards were given to outstanding teams and individuals, further fuelling a sense of pride and accomplishment.

Top 3 Teams for Mixed Category:

Champion: Team Shut Up

1st Runner-up: Team Ais Berapi

2nd Runner-up: Team Sterla Bomb

Top 3 Teams for Male Category:

Champion: Team Lebat

1st Runner-up: Team Macho

2nd Runner-up: Team Podo-Podo

This event provided a great opportunity for employees to unwind, bond, and form long-lasting relationships across departments. By investing in such events, NHF demonstrated its commitment to cultivating a supportive work culture that promotes teamwork. The memories and connections made during the tournament will continue to inspire collaboration, foster personal growth, and strengthen the foundation of the NHF family.