

A Night of Recognition, Celebration, and Fun: New Hoong Fatt Annual Dinner 2023

New Hoong Fatt's Annual Dinner 2023 was a dazzling display of appreciation, talent, and camaraderie that was truly spectacular for the entire staff. The evening unfolded like a well-choreographed symphony, with each element contributing to the harmonious celebration of the company's achievements and its people.

In her inspiring keynote address, Madam Kam Foong Keng, NHF Group's Executive Chairman, linked the night's theme, 'The Movie Night', to something that everyone should embrace: all kinds of movies and all circumstances provide opportunities for learning. She later commended the staff's collective effort, unwavering dedication, innovation and talent that drive the Group forward, highlighting their integral role in shaping the Group's future.

The sentiment of appreciation was further amplified through a series of captivating staff performances. From musical serenades to witty skits, employees showcased their hidden talents, transforming the room into a stage of vibrant energy and shared passion. Laughter filled the air as colleagues cheered each other on, fostering a sense of connection that transcended their daily roles.

Performances

Lucky Draw

Anticipation then reached fever pitch with the eagerly awaited lucky draw. A treasure trove of prizes, awaited lucky winners. The hall buzzed with excitement with each ticket drawn, culminating in joyous cheers and solidifying the spirit of shared fortune.

Study Awards

But the celebration extended beyond personal rewards. New Hoong Fatt's commitment to its people shone brightly during the Study Awards ceremony, where it recognised the employees' children's excellent academic results in Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia 2021. Six children of staff members were recognized, with their proud parents beaming and colleagues applauding their achievements. This heartwarming segment reinforced the company's unwavering support for its employees' families and their aspirations.

Games

Engaging games followed, providing a welcome break from the formal proceedings. From the lighthearted challenge of inflating balloons to the intellectually stimulating exercise of guessing movie titles, teamwork and friendly competition took center stage and provided laughter and camaraderie.

Long Service Award

As the night neared its finale, a hush fell over the room as the Long Service Awards were presented. These awards were more than mere recognition; they were testaments to the Group's deep appreciation for its loyal and long-serving employees, the very foundation upon which New Hoong Fatt stands tall. The honoured employees have not merely stayed with the Group; they have been instrumental in shaping its identity, fostering a culture of excellence, and inspiring their colleagues along the way.

Best Dress Award: Male Category

Best Dress Award: Female Category

And then came the moment everyone awaited – the unveiling of the Best Dress Award. Amidst a flurry of anticipation, the short-listed participants were announced and they catwalked on the red carpet to the stage with their elegant attire and confident poise, garnering admiration from all. This light-hearted recognition added a touch of glamour and fun to the evening, reminding everyone that excellence can come in many forms.

Group Photo

All in all, the New Hoong Fatt Annual Dinner 2023 was more than just a corporate event; it was an experience. It was a celebration of individual and collective triumphs, a reinforcement of the company's commitment to its people, and a powerful declaration of unity. It was a night that will undoubtedly leave a lasting impression on all who participated, reminding them that they are not just employees but valued members of the New Hoong Fatt family.